ABOUT LISA

Lisa Houle is one of LA's most sought after criminal defense attorneys and legal commentator on ABC 7 and KTLA news. Born and raised in the suburbs of Los Angeles and the daughter of a lawyer, Lisa remembers working at a very young age for her father and his colleagues during summer vacations and holidays. At a young age, she was mesmerized by the feel of respect and honor in the courtroom and she wanted to work on trials every chance she got.

In 1996, Lisa entered Southwestern Law School and found her passion for criminal law while working at the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office. Upon graduating and passing the CA State Bar Exam, Lisa was hired as a Deputy District Attorney. For 15 years, Lisa prosecuted some of LA's most violent criminals for assault, rape, murder and domestic violence. She tried over 60 jury trials and frequently advised the police in their investigations. After 15 years of service, Lisa felt pulled by the responsibility to bring fairness to offenders. She left the DA's office in 2015, and opened her own criminal defense practice.

Lisa is most known for her rare glimpse of being on both sides of the table, along with her unfettered tenacity and gift of connecting with jurors. She has helped dozens of clients escape conviction, or avoid being charged altogether, all while serving her mission to bring equality and fairness to the most violent defendants.

TESTIMONIALS

"Lisa is a fearless presenter who can tackle even the most sensitive topics; she has a certain je je sais quoi when speaking on delicate issues."

~Cristina Arneson, Retired Police Officer, Manhattan Beach Police Department

"The common denominator of what makes a presentation both compelling and memorable is the presenter; Lisa delivers evocative information with passion and expertise. Her message always resonates."

~Alan Beck, Retired Sergeant, Redondo Beach Police Department
